DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 2. Claims 1, 3, 20-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gemmer (US Patent Application Publication 2004/0022233 A1) in view of Oyama et al. (US 2002/0068545 A1) and further in view of Moon (US 2002/0102970).

Regarding claim 1, Gemmer teaches a telecommunications terminal that is part of a telecommunications system (paragraphs 0001-0002). Gemmer further teaches ISDN and Centrex networks (paragraphs 0003 and 0016-0020) of which the telecommunications terminal and/or the telecommunications system can be part of. Therefore, Gemmer discloses user equipment associated with a first access network and a second network. The networks could also be DECT and/or GSM (paragraph 0019). Gemmer's telecommunications system, ISDN, Centrex, DECT and/or GSM networks interchangeably read on claim language as claimed.

Gemmer discloses a method (e.g. page 2, right column), comprising establishing a communication session (e.g. call) between a user equipment associated with a first access network, and a node of a communication system via a second network and at least one entity of said communication system between said user equipment and said node; putting the session on hold ("the connection to the second connection 03) and the call arriving at the first connection (A) are held" - page 2, claim 1, lines 7-8; also page 1, paragraph 0003, lines 11-12);

reserving resources for said session while said session is on hold (resources are reserved because the connection with B is held by the switching center VER while a connection between A and C progresses) ("In order to make it possible to resume the connection to the connection B at some later time, this connection can be held by the switching center VER." - page 2, paragraph 0021, lines 8-10); and Gemmer clearly suggests that the networks could also be DECT and/or GSM (paragraph 0019). One of ordinary skill in the art would easily recognize that Gemmer's telecommunications system, ISDN, Centrex, DECT and/or GSM networks are different as claimed. Thus, Gemmer's telecommunications system, ISDN, Centrex, DECT and/or GSM networks interchangeably read on claim language as claimed.

Further, Gemmer suggests that the system can be GSM (page 2, paragraph 0019, line 5). Nevertheless, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose that the message distributes an access network charging identifier (for charging purposes) as defined by applicant.

Gemmer and Admitted Prior Art do not teach resuming said session with a message by which an access network charging identifier is distributed within the second network.

10/625,909 Art Unit: 2617

Oyama et al. further teach resuming said session with a message from said user equipment by which a charging identifier for the first access network is distributed within the second network (col. 4, lines 26-32, a billing system 55 within network 104 resumes charging when a call resume message is received).

Therefor, it world have been obvious to a person ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the teachings of Oyama et al. into the teachings of Gemmer and Admitted Prior Art for the purposes of appropriate charging on the users (paragraph 79 and 145).

Gemmer and Ahuja do not disclose resuming said session with a message from said user equipment.

Moon further disclose resuming said session with a message from said user equipment (Fig. 4, MS 200 access web server 210 through BTS 202, BSC 204, MSC 206, and internet 208 (paragraph 21-22). The internet access session is established when the user input an URL in the MS 200 (paragraph 27). The internet access session is temporary released after a time period the MS 200 has not receive any URL input (paragraph 29). The internet access session resuming after the user input an URL in the MS 200 (paragraph 30). It is know that to establish an internet access session or a call the MS 200 at least need to send an access message to at least one or more of the BTS 202, BSC 204, MSC 206, internet 208, and web server 210).

Therefor, it world have been obvious to a person ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the teachings of Moon into the teachings of

10/625,909 Art Unit: 2617

Gemmer and Ahuja for the purposes of reducing an unnecessary Internet access time (paragraph 12).

Regarding claim 20, Gemmer discloses everything as applied above (see claim 1). In addition, the establishing step comprises establishing a session wherein said node comprises user equipment 03 or TEB) (see citations above).

- 3. As to claims 21, 23, 25, 27, and 31, being corresponding claims to method claim 1; they are rejected for the same reasons explained above.
- 4. As to claims 22, 24, 26, 28, 29, 30, and 32, being corresponding claims to method claim 3; they are rejected for the same reasons explained above.
- 5. Claims 2, 4-6, 8-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gemmer (US Patent Application Publication 2004/0022233 A1) in view of Oyama et al. (US 2002/0068545 A1) and Moon (US 2002/0102970) as applied to claims 1 and 3 and further in view of the Admitted Prior Art (in general paragraphs 0002-0015 of the present disclosure under the Background of the Invention; in particular as cited below)

Regarding claim 2, Gemmer discloses everything as applied above (see claim 1).

Gemmer further suggests that the system can be GSM (page 2, paragraph 0019, line 5).

Nevertheless, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose determining if charging information is provided during the establishment of said session and carrying out the putting of the session on hold to the resuming of said session only when it has been determined that the charging information has not been provided.

The prior art admitted by applicant (simply "Admitted Prior Art") disclosed on page 5, paragraph 0015 of the present disclosure under the Background of the Invention section teaches that release 6 for third generation standard (3G) typically requires charging information not to be provided for a communication session.

Consequently, there is no need to distribute charging information because it is not provided under 3G release 6. It should be noted that GSM is 3G.

For that reason, Gemmer's invention would be constructively enhanced and would positively benefit from 3G release 6 requirements.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to determining if charging information is provided during the establishment of said session and carrying out steps b) to d) only when it has been determined that the charging information has not been provided in Gemmer in order to comply with release 6 for third generation standard as Gemmer's invention would be constructively enhanced and would positively benefit from 3G release 6 requirements.

Regarding claim 4, Gemmer discloses everything as applied above (see claim 3).

10/625,909 Art Unit: 2617

Nevertheless, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose determining if charging information is provided during the establishment of said session and carrying out the putting of the session on hold to the resuming of said session only when it has been determined that the charging information has not been provided.

The prior art admitted by applicant (simply "Admitted Prior Art") disclosed on page 5, paragraph 0015 of the present disclosure under the Background of the Invention section teaches that release 6 for third generation standard (3G) typically requires charging information not to be provided for a communication session.

Consequently, there is no need to distribute charging information because it is not provided under 3G release 6. It should be noted that GSM is 3G.

For that reason, Gemmer's invention would be constructively enhanced and would positively benefit from 3G release 6 requirements.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to determining if charging information is provided during the establishment of said session and carrying out steps b) to d) only when it has been determined that the charging information has not been provided in Gemmer in order to comply with release 6 for third generation standard as Gemmer's invention would be constructively enhanced and would positively benefit from 3G release 6 requirements.

Regarding claims 5-6, Gemmer discloses everything as applied above (see claim 1).

Nevertheless, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose using SIP for the session as claimed.

The prior art admitted by applicant (simply "Admitted Prior Art") disclosed on pages 2-3, paragraphs 0008-0009 of the present disclosure under the Background of the Invention section teaches that SIP is typically required by newer releases for third generation standard (3G). SIP enables two-way telephone calls as well as multi-way conference sessions. It should be noted that Gemmer's GSM is 3G and that Gemmer's session/call is at least a two-way telephone call.

UMTS is based on GSM and is 3G. It implements SIP as claimed (see paragraphs 0008- 0009 of Admitted Prior Art).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to enable Gemmer's invention with SIP in order to comply with newer releases for 3G as it would be a particular requirement of a particular system.

Regarding claims 8- 18, Gemmer discloses everything as applied above (see claim 1).

However, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose GCID, a P-charging vector, a GGSN entity, a P- CSCF entity, a PDF function, COPS messages, and a user agent server as defined by applicant.

10/625,909 Art Unit: 2617

The prior art admitted by applicant (simply "Admitted Prior Art") disclosed on page 4, paragraph 0013 of the present disclosure under the Background of the Invention section and paragraphs 0039-0040 teaches that GPRS typically requires a GGSN entity, a P-CSCF (PDF) entity, a GPRS charging identifier (GCID) sent from the GGSN to the P-CSCF (PDF) typically using COPS to enable charging. GPRS is a particular GSM service. GSM is 3G. Therefore, combinable with Gemmer's teachings given that Gemmer teaches that the system can be GSM (page 2, paragraph 0019, line 5 of Gemmer). A user agent server as claimed is a particular requirement of 3G release 5 (see paragraph 0014 of the Admitted Prior Art).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to enable Gemmer's invention with a charging identifier or vector, GCID or ICID, a P-charging vector, a GGSN entity, a P-CSCF entity, a PDF function, COPS messages, and a user agent server as required by GPRS because GPRS is a particular GSM service and Gemmer teaches that the system can be GSM; therefore, these would be particular requirement of a particular system as choice of engineering design.

However, Gemmer fails to specifically disclose a user agent server as claimed.

Such is a particular requirement of 3G release 5 (see paragraph 0014 of the Admitted Prior Art)

Regarding claim 19, Gemmer and the Admitted Prior Art disclose everything as applied above (see claim 5). In addition, the Admitted Prior Art discloses charging information is sent in an INVITE message as claimed (via UPDATE message; paragraphs 0013-0014).
